

Event Host

Denver Mart - Denver, CO

Part-time

The Denver Mart is seeking an event host who provides a welcoming atmosphere for guests and event attendees. This work can be long, irregular hours, including very early mornings, late nights and weekends. The event hosts will be responsible for enforcing admission policies, provide support to attendees who need additional information, and/or and contact various Mart departments as needed.

Event hosts must maintain effective working relationships with other event workers, featured guests, organizers and other involved parties. Event Hosts must have confidence and a friendly attitude that helps them relate to all types of people and can handle stressful situations.

This is great position for those interested in returning to the workplace, retirees, and college students.
